

2014 TPA National Coaching Conference

Featuring PAUL ANNAZONE

February 20 – Toronto, ON

8:00 AM – 3:30 PM

The Tennis Professionals Association is proud to present the ninth annual TPA National Coaching Conference. This year’s conference features highly-respect coach and former professional tennis player Paul Annacone.

Holding career-high rankings of world No. 12 in singles and No. 3 in doubles, Annacone reached the height of his playing career in the mid-1980s. He captured the 1985 Australian Open doubles title with Christo van Rensburg and was a three-time singles titlist at tournaments in Brisbane, Los Angeles, and Vienna. Retiring from the pro circuit in 1993, the American proceeded to make a name for himself as one of the world’s top coaches. He was the longtime coach of 14-time Slam champion Pete Sampras and also instructed Tim Henman before joining Roger Federer’s team from 2010-2013. Annacone also has served in the USTA’s High Performance program and was a head coach for the Lawn Tennis Association, where he also acted as Great Britain’s Davis Cup captain for two years.
