

The TPA presents
A Special Day with JUDY MURRAY
February 25, 2015 – Montreal, QC
9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

The Tennis Professionals Association is proud to present a special day with highly-respected coach and British Fed Cup Team captain Judy Murray.

A former tennis player herself, Murray has won 64 Scottish tennis titles along with becoming the first coach of her two sons, Jamie and Andy. Andy, a two time grand slam champion has since reached a career-high ranking of world No. 2, while Jamie is a top doubles player. She has also been a national coach with the Lawn Tennis Association, created the National Development School in Scotland, and was named the LTA Coach of the Year in 1999. Captain of the British Fed Cup team since December 2011, she has said it's a role she took partly to help grow the number of female coaches in Great Britain. She also is the founder of Set4Sport, a program created to help parents find easy and accessible ways to play with their children at an early age and develop the skills required for sports.
