

2016 TPA WORKSHOP
Featuring CARLOS KIRMAYR
October 11 – Toronto, ON
8:00 AM – 2:30 PM

The TPA is proud to present a coaching workshop featuring former Brazilian professional tennis player Carlos Kirmayr, and Daniel Rosenbaum. The conference will also feature a Tennis Canada National fitness coach André Parent and Tennis Canada's Director of High Performance Coaching Development, Jocelyn Robichaud.

Kirmayr was born in Sao Paulo, Brazil, and is the director of the Kirmayr prep school, as well as president of the Instituto LOB Tenis Feminine. Rosenbaum hails from Brazil as well, and has been involved in the game of tennis since 1982, and currently coordinates the development projects at Sao Paulo State Tennis Federation in Brazil. Parent has worked with high-performance athletes for over 20 years across a wide range of sports including speed skating, tennis, and downhill Skiing. Robichaud is the Director of High Performance Coaching Development, and is responsible for Tennis Canada's high performance coaching program.

Cost: TPA Members: $69 plus HST NON Members: $119 plus HST

Location: The Granite Club, 2350 Bayview Ave. North York, ON M2L 1E4

Schedule:

8:00 – 8:30	Registration
8:30 – 9:45	Games and exercises for group classes to develop the tactical function of technique – Daniel Rosenbaum
9:45 – 11:00	Tennis, a game of open skills: the importance of decision making - Daniel Rosenbaum
11:00 – 12:15	Taking them to the top; coaching high level players to success – Carlos Kirmayr
12:15 – 1:00	Lunch
1:00 – 2:30	Improve tennis skills with physical development training – Tennis Canada National Fitness Coach & Jocelyn Robichaud

To Register: CLICK HERE TO REGISTER ONLINE

Cheques can be made payable to: Tennis Canada

For more information, please contact Graham Welsh at 1-416-665-9777 ext. 4555, gwelsh@tenniscanada.com or mail to Tennis Canada, Attn: Graham Welsh, 1 Shoreham Drive, Toronto, ON M3N 3A6 Fax: 416-665-9017

Deadline to Register: Thursday, October 6