

COACHING CERTIFICATION PROGRAM AND LTAD

Throughout this document, it has been articulated that the role of the coach is critical to the development of the athlete. Tennis Canada has aligned the National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP) with the stages of Long Term Athlete Development.

HIGH PERFORMANCE STREAM		TENNIS FOR LIFE
COACH 2 (Competitive) Development)	Stage #2 FUNdamentals: • Girls 5-8 • Boys 5-9	Instructor (instructor/beginner) Trained to work with introductory players in large for 1.0 to 2.5 level groups Wheelchair Tennis Instructor Workshop Club Professional 1 (comp intro) (formerly Coach 1) Has the skills to teach private and group lessons for 1.0 to 3.5 level and run basic club programs. Club Professional 2 Has the skills to plan and deliver a full array of club programming and can work with players up to 4.5 level. Club Professional 3 Has the skills to occupy the position of Tennis Director or Head Pro. Strong understanding of overall tennis and club business.
	Stage #3 Developing: • Girls 8-11 • Boys 9-12
COACH 3 (Competitive) High Performance)	Stage #4 Consolidating • Girls 12 - 14 • Boys 13 - 15
COACH 4/5 (Competitive) High Performance)	Stage #5 Learning to Perform • Girls 15 -16 • Boys 16 - 18
	Stage #6 Learning to be a Professional • Women 17 - 21 • Men 19 - 23
	Stage #7 Living as a Professional • Women 22+ • Men 24+	